

POSED AS PRIESTS, PUNCHED EXPOSER

Alleged Fakers Trapped in Headquarters, But Without Proof.

Four Persians, wearing the garb of Greek Catholic priests, were arrested before Magistrate McAdoo in Central Street Court to-day, charged of being party to the "Turkey Trot" in that city resulted yesterday in the commitment to jail for fifty days of Ethel Merman and eighteen, of Riverside. She and Arthur Johnson were arrested late yesterday night at Helvetia Hall by Mrs. Adeline McFadden.

When tried before Recorder Carroll to-day they were found guilty of having participated in the dance which was held under the law of "Chief of Police" Dennis last week. They were each fined $2. Johnson was able to pay his fine, but the girl, not having the money, was sent to jail.

"I went to their house," said Collie, "because I had been told by many persons of our church that they were collecting money for orphan asylums and other philanthropic institutions in Persia and that they had got large sums. No society or church in Persia has sent collectors to America for any such purpose."

"At the house I found two dozen Persians in the room. They were helping each other into clerical robes, preparatory to going out. I told them I was from the Baptist Society and had come to find out what authority they were collecting money. They all rushed towards me, pointing to their robes, their hands tried to get out, and they tried to drag me back into their room. I finally managed to get to the street and had the men arrested."

When Magistrate McAdoo asked the defendants if they had tried to collect money for Persian institutions they denied it. They said they were students and deacons in their church, but not priests. As they made these demands they attempted to unbuckle their high waistcoats and took them out of sight under the coats.

Magistrate McAdoo caught them in the act and asked why they wore clerical vestments.

"We are poor and we wear the high waistcoats to keep warm," said Nicholas George. He showed what purported to be his deacon's papers, but which was really a Persian passport.

"I don't believe a word one of you has said," declared the court. "There is no evidence that you have collected money, and I can not hold you on that charge, but you should be placed under police surveillance."

Emil P. Korkos, counsel for the complainant, said several of these so-called Persian priests had recently been arrested in China for obtaining money under false pretences.

"BUTTERS-IN" WERE ROUGH.

One Wielded Knife, Other a Revolver, and Broke Up Party.

An all night party in the rooms of William Powers at No. 182 East Houston street, broke up in a fight to-day because one of the guests tried to ring in two friends he had picked up in the street at the "growing."

John Cummings, thirty years old, a bricklayer, of No. 121 East Houston street, was stabbed in the forehead and abdomen by one of the unbidden visitors, and Jack Silver was struck on the head with the butt of a revolver. The strangers got away. No arrests were made. Cummings was taken to Bellevue Hospital, but his injuries were not serious.
